Council discussed grand opening, candidates and more in October

By Susan House

The greatly anticipated Emergency Services building "Open House" was held on September 22 following the Second Annual Terrace Park Motor Classic held on the green. The car show was organized by Sean Barton and crew, and was a fund raiser for the fire and Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Departments. EMS Chief Connie Wilson reported that attendance at the open house was approximately 250 people.

Chief Wilson, on behalf of herself, Fire Chief Jeff Carle and their dedicated crews, expressed genuine gratitude for the new fire and EMS facility. She extended thanks to the mayor, council and the Terrace Park community for this wonderful new work space. Councilman Jeff Koreman was singled out by Wilson, other councilmen and the mayor for his dedication to the building project and the rehabilitation of the community house. John Maggard was thanked for his assistance in organizing requirements for the new facility. Chief Wilson also thanked all squad volunteers for their help. Maggard was also recognized for the demonstrations that he offered during the grand opening.

Councilman Mark Porst reported that the "close out construction meeting" has been held. Porst reported that the slated cost of the project had actually come in at $61,000 under budget. He said that these funds will ultimately allow for needed repairs to the police building and additional work on the community house.

Councilman Howe made a point of mentioning that Porst was a key player in the organization of the financing for the building project, and that he had spent countless hours overseeing the budget demands of the venture. The council and the mayor added thanks to Porst for his work. Larry Williams, the Chief Fiscal Officer was also singled out for his diligence in making sure that all contract payments to sub-contractors and vendors were accurate and consistent. Porst, once again, took the opportunity to thank all Terrace Park residents for agreeing to fund this important construction.

Pancake Supper

The 48th Annual "Pancake Supper" is set for Sunday, November 4 at the Terrace Park Elementary cafeteria. This is one of the fund raisers for our volunteer fire and EMS departments.

New fire fighters and police officer sworn in

After an introduction by Councilman Howe, council members gave consent to appointment new fire fighters, Donald Snider and Kevin Dunn. Snider, who was in attendance, was sworn in by Mayor Gohman. He is a level two fire fighter, and has 6-and-one-half years of experience in Clermont County as a member of the fire and EMS departments.

Brian Bauer was appointed and sworn in as an Auxiliary Police Officer. He is a graduate of the Clermont County Police Academy and has experience as a police officer. He expressed his appreciation at being able to join the department in the Terrace Park community.

Candidates for council

Jeff Krueger, who is a candidate running for council in the upcoming election, attended the council meeting. Krueger introduced himself, and stayed to observe the operation of the Village Administration. Krueger grew up in Terrace Park and works in his family's business, Krueger Nationwide Insurance. He was thanked for "stepping up" to run for this position. The Mayor said that Lee Cole has also agreed to run for a council position. Seats will be vacated by Koreman and Jack Brown.

Glassmeyer retires

Mayor Gohman reminded everyone that Francine Glassmeyer will officially retire on October 31, 2007. A "get together" will be held on that day at the Community building in appreciation of the many years of service that Glassmeyer has dedicated to the Village.

Internet safety

Chief of Police Jerry Hayhow and Sergeant Tim Chin attended the Attorney General's Conference on Law Enforcement. Investigative techniques and defense tactics were among the seminars they attended. Of special importance was the coverage of "Internet Use for Children." The Chief feels that he

From the Board:

It has come to our attention that there is some confusion concerning advertising policy in the Village Views.

Our policy is as follows: All non-profit organizations will get one free ad per year. Repeat ads for non-profits will be charged at one half of the regular rate. Submissions, which the main purpose of is to raise funds, are considered ads. Businesses are charged at the full advertising rate.

Our ad rates, by current standards, are quite low, and we will do our best to keep them so. Rates run $6 per column inch. We have not raised our advertising rates in 10 years. Village Views relies on ad revenue and donations to pay for publishing costs. We are not funded by the Village of Terrace Park. We are a non-profit endeavor staffed by volunteers. Keeping the paper afloat requires a great time commitment and steady revenue. Thank you for all of your past and present support, without which we would not be able to continue.

Please call the Business Manager, Gerri Kennedy, with any questions about advertising in the paper. Her number is: 831-2388. We are always looking for new advertisers! It's a great way to reach Village residents, as the paper is delivered to every household in the Park.

Thank you,
Suanne Luhn, Linda Swensson, Cyndy Finnigan, Gerri Kennedy.

now has additional resources that will contribute to the development of comprehensive and informative literature for parents and children alike regarding the dangers that can be present on the internet. He feels that this will be pertinent and useful information and is committed to accomplishing this task.

Leaf pick-up

Acting as the Village Street Commissioner, Hayhow reminded residences that leaf collection will begin October 15, and will continue through November 30. Everyone is urgently requested to make certain that the leaf piles put out for pick-up contain only leaves. If sticks are buried within the leaf pile, serious damage can occur to the truck and equipment used. This machinery is expensive and when damaged is expensive to repair. If the equipment is not running, no leaves are picked up.

Terrace Park teacher inducted into college Hall of Fame

Mr. Maness with his first grade class at the assembly

Kevin Maness, a first grade teacher at Terrace Park Elementary, will be inducted into the William H. Hollinger Hall of Fame at Hiram College on October 6. Maness earned this recognition through his four years of accomplishments as a varsity swimmer for the Hiram Terriers. Maness was MVP for the Hiram College men's swim team all four years that he competed. He was OAC Swimmer of the year in 1991 and seven time OAC Champion in the 200 and 400 Individual Medleys and the 200 Backstroke during 1990 - 1993. He was captain of the Terriers swim team for two years and achieved five varsity records.

Kevin Maness

Maness has taught first grade at Terrace Park Elementary since 2001 and has been the Head Varsity Swimming Coach at Mariemont High School (his alma mater) for the past thirteen years.

The Terrace Park Elementary staff and students celebrated Mr. Maness' achievement with a surprise all-school assembly, complete with the singing of the Hiram Terriers Fight Song.

Warrior Royalty

Mariemont High School seniors Laura Murray and Jake Glaser were crowned Homecoming queen and king at halftime of the football game October 5. Laura is the daughter of Joe and Patty Murray of Fairfax. Jake is the son of Dennis and Joy Glaser of Terrace Park. Other Terrace Parkers on homecoming court were seniors Joey Mileham and Chris Porst, and freshman, Keeky Jackson.

Curbside leaf collection will began October 15 and continues through the end of November. Please do not put anything other than leaves in the collection piles because the leaf collecting equipment can be easily damaged by hard debris such as sticks, rocks, etc. There will be no stick collection at this time.

A quick safety reminder: to help protect the children of our village, please do not drive through leaves on the curb. Also, please discourage children from playing in leaf piles along the street.

VV Deadline changes

Because of the holidays the November and December deadlines have been moved ahead. The deadline for the November issue is Nov. 2. The deadline for the December issue is Nov. 30.

Letters to the Editor

To the editor,

When I was asked to be part of the Mariemont School District's Levy campaign for the upcoming election on November 6th, I gladly said yes. My husband Paul and I moved to the district 23 years ago. We did not yet have children in the school system but we knew the schools were excellent and we loved the community. We now have two children in the high school. Our neighbors and friends throughout this district are of all stages in life, those with school-aged children, empty nesters, new and soon-to-be parents, business people, and dedicated citizens such as my daytime next-door neighbor Police Chief Jerry Hayhow. I would like to offer a few words to all of those friends and neighbors.

To the newest members of the community, welcome! With many neighborhoods to choose from, we are glad you picked this district. There is much to enjoy and get involved in.

To the next generation of school parents, you have much to look forward to. It will go fast and be incredibly rewarding. Strap yourself in for a great ride.

To the active parents who are currently involved and engaged in the schools, keep it up, you are the glue.

To those of you who have been here many years and may no longer be "direct users," we especially thank you for being a part of this terrific community and contributing to a quality of life that we all value so much. You have set the bar high.

And finally, to the teachers, staff and volunteers whose dedication to our children's education in the Mariemont School District has consistently put this district in the highest regard, we are grateful and honored to have you. Your contributions to the children as well as this community are innumerable.

School funding is a difficult and confusing issue in the state of Ohio. But what has not been difficult or confusing for me, is choosing to live in a community that embraces all ages, starting from the very young to the most mature.

Please vote YES for Mariemont Schools on November 6th.

Thank you,
Robin Pendery

Dear Community,

The Terrace Park Lifesquad and Fire Department volunteers would like to thank our community for their incredible support at the Car Show and Grand Opening of the new station. We think everyone will agree, the Car Show was a huge success. Thanks to the group of hardworking car enthusiasts who organized this event; Bill Hayes, Steve Schooler, Dan Neal, Sean Barton, John Albrecht, Jeff Gibson, David Lewis and Stock Keffer. Their donation from the raffle will offset expenses for the furnishings of our new station. We sincerely appreciate their involvement and commitment to our departments.

Our 48th Annual Pancake Supper is just around the corner. Mark your calendars.....no tickets will be sold door-to-door and remember we've changed the day to Sunday! Please join us for pancakes served by your local EMTs and Fire Fighters on Sunday November 4th from 4:30-7:30 p.m. at the Terrace Park Elementary School cafeteria. If you have questions, please call Sue Keffer, 248-8776 or email her at sbkeff@cinci.rr.com.

We thank you again for your support of our Departments and look forward to seeing you on November 4th for the Pancake Supper.

Mariemont High School sets record for AP Scholar Awards

Mariemont High School students from the Classes of 2007 and 2008 have set the record for the largest number of AP Scholars in the history of Mariemont High School. Forty-three students at Mariemont High School have earned the designation of AP Scholar by the College Board in recognition of their exceptional achievement on the college-level Advanced Placement Program Exams. The College Board recognizes several levels of achievement based on student's performance on the exams.

Brendan Ayer (2007) was named a "National AP Scholar" by earning an average grade of at least 4 on all AP Exams taken, and grades of 4 or higher on eight or more of the exams.

Fifteen students qualified for "AP Scholar with Distinction" by earning an average grade of at least 3.5 on all AP Exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on five or more of these exams. The Mariemont High School AP Scholars with Distinction from the Classes of 2007 and 2008 are: Brendan Ayer, Todd Beeby, Avery Braun, Katherine Donovan, Chris Greathouse, Thomas Kauffmann, Allison Kehoe, Chelsea Kogmeier, Blair Sackett, Jeffrey Schubert, Julia Smith, Mary Spooner, Langston Vanderheide, Stephen Walker, and Katherine Warren.

"AP Scholars with Honor" from the Classes of 2007 and 2008 are: Marcia Allen, Andrew Cunningham, Matthew Finn, Leslie Foard, Erica Franke, Andrew Kupferle, and Meredith Shell. These students received an average grade of at least 3.25 on all AP Exams taken, and grades of 3 or higher on four or more of these exams.

"AP Scholars" are those students who received grades of 3 or higher on three or more AP Exams. Scholars are: Brian Baird, Nicholas Crosswell, Allison Dilbone, Chelsea Ferguson, Mackenzie Fields, Kendall Flynn, James Foran, Walter Gerberick, Elizabeth Gore, Rachel Haddix, Natalie Helmrich, Brian Kranitzky, Elise Kubicki, Max Long, Laura Murray, Blythe Pardue, Caitlin Peterkin, Christopher Porst, Amir Rezyat, Whitney Taylor, Chelsea Thomas, and Andrew Troller.

Students took AP exams in May 2007 after completing challenging college-level courses at the high school. Most of the nation's colleges and universities award credit, advanced placement, or both based on successful performance on the AP exams.

TPHS founders continue commitment

The Terrace Park Historical Society (TPHS) has welcomed Kay Pope back to the board and conferred emeritus board member status on Helen Barnett.

In addition to serving on the board, Kay is a regular worker in the historical society's office. Archive administrator, business manager and resident computer expert are some of the hats she wears on the job, in addition to answering the phone and responding to e-mails. Kay helped found the historical society in 2001 and was its first secretary. She is also credited with naming the organization's newsletter "The Tracker."

Kay first moved to Terrace Park in 1960 as a member of the

Kay Pope

Steigerwald family, which made their home at 800 Princeton Avenue. She graduated Ithaca College. In 1968 she married Mike Pope, who was a Mariemont High

Helen Barnett

School classmate, and 10 years later returned to the community when they purchased their current home at 3 Circus Place. The Pops have two daughters - Cindy, a professor at Central Connecticut State University, and Leslie Willett, a dietitian who is raising two daughters in Indianapolis with her husband, Jason.

Helen Barnett is also a founding board member of TPHS. She was born in Terrace Park in 1916 and has lived at 215 Oxford Avenue ever since, with the exception of a stint with the U.S. State Department in the Dominican Republic during World War II.

"Terrace Park is the only place I have ever voted," she said, adding that family ties to Terrace Park go back to 1886 when her grandparents, Louis and Ida Breiling, moved here as newlyweds.

Vonderheide named National Merit Semifinalist

Mariemont High School class of 2008 member and Terrace Park resident Langston Vonderheide has qualified as Semifinalist in the 53rd annual National Merit Scholarship Program. The competition is based on scores on the 2007 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT). His achievement on the PSAT placed him in approximately the top one percent of all those who took the exam.

Vonderheide will now compete for Finalist status. About 90% of Semifinalists advance to that level. The criteria will include an outstanding academic record, SAT scores which confirm their earlier performance and their school's endorsement. Half of the students named as finalists will receive one of the 8,200 National Merit scholarships worth a total of $34 million.

Troller named National Merit Commended student

Based upon his achievement on the Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT), Mariemont High School student and Terrace Park resident Drew Troller received a Letter of Commendation. His score placed him in the top five percent of all juniors who took the national exam last year.

Terrace Park enjoys annual October PTO events

Eyeball Oreos, disappearing ink, bat whistles, skeleton claws and the ever-popular popcorn hands were among the goodies to be purchased at Terrace Park Elementary's Annual PTO Boutique. This year it took place on October 4 and offered students and their families gobs of ghoulish delights and fun.

The Boutique is the official kick off to the PTO's largest fundraiser of the year, Pumpkin Festival 2007, which will haunt TPE on Friday, October 26 from 5:30 p.m. to 8:30 pm in the elementary school. A haunted house, games galore, the Pumpkin Patch café and more will await the little ghouls and goblins.

Armed with her Boutique treats, Terrace Park fourth grader, Madeline Falknor was a happy customer.

St. Thomas celebrates Christmas with new art event

The tree may not be trimmed but St. Thomas Episcopal Church will have decked its halls for its Christmas Traditions Art Show and Sale, November 3, 2007, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Holiday shopping starts early in Terrace Park, with many beautiful and unusual gifts produced by designers and artists from Ohio and Michigan. Find one-of-a-kind hand-painted tree decorations, original artwork, jewelry, textiles and pottery that can only be found at this unique juried show.

Terrace Park artists featured in the show are Erin Rosson (hand-painted ceramics), Elaine Fening (hand-painted furniture and accessories), Candace Fries (jewelry), Rosell Shundich (watercolor), Elizabeth Olson (jewelry), Peggy Reynolds (watercolor), Patricia Lopez and Anne-Stuart Kirkhorn (personalized stationary and accessories) and Stacy Sloan (children's apparel).

A special opportunity to preview the show will be Friday, Noember 2 during Ladies Night. Tickets are $40 and include appetizers, wine, a holiday fashion show by Twist (owned by Terrace Park residents Deborah Barton and Candace Fries) and silent auction and raffle with items donated by the artists. To reserve tickets, send $40 payable to St. Thomas to Elaine Fening, 615 Miami Ave., Terrace Park, OH 45174 by October 31.

Admission to the Art show is free. All proceeds benefit the programs and mission work of St. Thomas Church.

Police report

A resident on Lexington Avenue reported the apparent theft of two Adirondack chairs from the front lawn. The incident occurred during the night.

Two Razor scooters were reported stolen from the log cabin area during the bonfire.

Police received a complaint from a resident concerning the burning of trash in a nearby backyard. When the officer responded no one answered the door at the site reported. Police called and left a message asking the owner to call the station.

Remains of a dog killed on Wooster Pike were found. The animal had no identification tags so the officer requested that the State of Ohio dispose of the body.

The Terrace Park Police Department is responsible for that part of Wooster Pike within village corporation signs. They perform traffic stops primarily for traffic violations but often find apprehended drivers to be under warrant in other areas or to be in violation of drug laws, etc. Police activity on the pike enhances the quality of security all residents enjoy.

By Carol C. Cole

How many of you watched Ken Burns' documentary entitled The War? That of course was World War II in which everyone living in the United States at that time was very much involved. A rationing program using Ration Stamp Books was set up by the government to try to let every person and family get its share of products made scarce by war production. These included many food items, women's stockings, cigarettes and gasoline. The back cover of the books read, "If you don't need it don't buy it." Very few houses were built due to the difficulty of getting materials. Almost everyone had a "Victory Garden." Many families housed European children lucky enough to have been sent over here for safekeeping. Everyone was very much aware everyday of the war going on even if no one in his or her immediate family was in the service. Thus World War II had a tremendous impact on all those who lived through it.

After the war the Terrace Park and area men and women who had served in the Armed Forces were honored by having their names on the Terrace Park Honor Roll, designed by Carl Lindell, which was erected on the corner of the Village Green near the intersection of Elm and Amherst Avenues. There were 144 names that you can read above, many of which are still familiar.

In 1946 a group of those veterans decided that Terrace Park should have its own American Legion Post. From a newspaper article of the time one reads, "John R. Gehrig, Cincinnati attorney and a resident of Terrace Park, who served in World War II as Commander of a Navy Sea Bee Battalion in the Pacific, has been elected the first Commander of the Francis George Baldwin Post No. 673.

Other officers are John M. West, Vice Commander; Robert A. Van Frank, Adjutant; Simon N. Ross, Finance Officer; William L. Sommer, Sergeant-at-Arms; Sprague Mullikin, Historian and Theodore A. Gatchell, Chaplain.

Robert B. Corey, Richard W. Booze, Allen H. Lloyd and Richard Ispording, Jr., are members of the Executive Committee.

Headquarters of the Post are in the Terrace Park Community House. Regular meetings are held on the third Thursday of each month.

The majority of the 60 charter members of the Post were personal friends of Lt. Francis George Baldwin, an AAF bomber pilot and a casualty of World War II, after whom the Post is named. The membership in general resides in Terrace Park and Indian Hill; however, a few of the members, who knew Lt. Baldwin personally, are residents of Mariemont and Cincinnati Ohio.

Lt. Baldwin was a resident of Terrace Park (219 Oxford Avenue) before he entered service as an Air Cadet in January, 1943. He was killed on Dec. 9, 1944, at the age of 24, near Oliveta Citra, southern Italy, when a plane in which he was a passenger, crashed into a mountain during a heavy storm. Shortly before his death he had been informed of the birth, in Cincinnati, Ohio, of his only child, Francis George Baldwin III. While in service, Lt. Baldwin participated in 30 missions over European combat targets as a pilot in the 719th Bomber Squadron. He was awarded both the Air Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster and the Distinguished Unit Badge with Oak Leaf Cluster." His brother was one of the charter members of the Post.

After the Post was established, Commander John R. Gehrig and Allen H. Lloyd, Post Memorial Committee Chairman, were largely responsible for obtaining the "two 57-millimeter anti-tank guns" originally installed by Council and the Garden Club on either side of the Honor Roll. "They were donated by the War Department, through the Chief of Ordnance, and were delivered from the Erie Ordnance Depot, LaCarne, O. These guns were used in the Battle of the Bulge in great numbers and with telling effect."

Unfortunately the Post, established in 1947, by 1962 had only 27 members and so their Charter was revoked, January 26, 1963. At one time this Post sponsored the Terrace Park Boy Scouts, later taken over by St. Thomas Church.

The only remainders from American Legion Post No. 673 are the two guns by the flagpole on the Green. However one other organization that grew out of involvement in the two World Wars is still active in our area. AFS was originally the ambulance drivers of the American Field Service. Ken Burns told of a Princeton University soccer star who was ineligible for military service due to an eye injury. He served in both Africa and Italy as an ambulance driver. In 1947 after World War II, it was decided to start a student exchange program, first bringing German teenagers here, to get to know them as people, rather than as our enemies.

After WWII, 144 residents who served in the armed forces were listed on the Terrace Park Honor Roll.

Artlines 2789: Local historian Gary Knepp spoke on the topic "Grant - A Re-evaluation," offering a fresh perspective on the life and times of U.S. Grant.

TPHS fall program well attended

The Terrace Park Historical Society's fall program on U.S. Grant's achievements as a Civil War general and president of the United States attracted a large audience to the community center Sunday, Sept. 30.

Gary Knepp, a historian, author and attorney, titled his talk "Grant - A Re-evaluation," and offered well-researched and documented information that presented the much-maligned Clermont County native in a favorable light. Knepp used the occasion to offer advance-purchase of his fourth book, "Freedom's Struggle" about Clermont County and the Underground Railroad.

The society's next public program will be Feb. 24 and will feature John Cimarosti on "Lewis & Clark."

Mariemont Lady Warriors serve up Volley for the Cure event

On Thursday, September 20, the Mariemont High School gym stands were "packed with pink" to cheer on the Lady Warriors Volleyball team and to raise money for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. Volley for the Cure volleyball matches are being held in schools across the state in support of this foundation.

The Lady Warriors' event, spearheaded by assistant varsity coach Kristen Hawley, was a great success. The Mariemont players, along with their Finneytown opponents, all wore Volley for a Cure pink tee shirts in place of their regular uniforms. The shirts were sold throughout the week at Mariemont High School. The Warriors also held raffles, sold pink ribbons and accepted donations to benefit the Komen foundation.

The pep band, cheerleaders and volleyball serving contests (complete with prizes) added to the spirit of the evening. In all, the event raised roughly $500 to support breast cancer research efforts.

Terrace Park Recreation Committee turns over four positions - two positions still open

www.TPRC.net

The Terrace Park Recreation Committee (TPRC) was founded in 1968 and relies completely on the volunteerism and generosity of Terrace Parkers to organize, supervise and fund the youth recreational sports programs in Terrace Park.

This past month, the committee said goodbye to six very dedicated volunteers - officers and commissioners whose terms came to an end. In many cases they had served not just one, but two and even three terms on the committee. Those leaving the TPRC were:

Rick Mileham - 3 years as president, 8 years in total

Jeff Jackson - 4 years as Soccer Commissioner, 8 years in total

Shannon DeCamp - 5 years as Secretary

Walt Dewees - 3 Years as Labor Day Commissioner

Dana Rolander - 2 1/2 years as Treasurer

Celia McNeil - 2 years as Summer Fun Commissioner

These six people generously volunteered their skills and time to deliver the TPRC mission to "organize and supervise recreational activities and to provide facilities for such recreational activities for the residents of Terrace Park", and left some big shoes to fill. For four of the positions, TPRC already has volunteers stepping into those shoes:

Tricia DiMichele - President

Tiger Nelson - Soccer Commissioner

Shannon Reber - Secretary

Scott Bucher - Treasurer

Two positions remain open. The first is Labor Day Commissioner. This role entails coordinating primarily the Festivities on the Green (Games, Rides, Food and Volunteers) which take place on Labor Day itself. The Garage Sale and Bulldog 5K Run, two other TPRC fundraisers that take place the same weekend, have separate coordinators and require minimal involvement by the Labor Day commissioner. For more details on this role, contact Walt Dewees at 513-831-3248.

The second opening is for the Summer Fun Commissioner role. Summer Fun is not a fund-raising activity, but rather a service the TPRC has provided Terrace Park kids for many years. This role entails setting up two consecutive summer weeks of afternoon activities and field trips for Terrace Park kids and getting volunteers to help make this happen. For more details on this position, contact Celia McNeil at CMCNEIL@cinci.rr.com.

Remaining on the TPRC are Sy Swart (Fields Commissioner), Steve Peterson (Lacrosse Commissioner), Joe Buechel (Softball Commissioner), Phillip Maloney (Baseball Commissioner) and John Wirthlin (Basketball Commissioner).

If you are interested in either of the two open positions, please contact Tricia DiMichele at JADPCW@AOL.com or 965-9798 or talk to any member of the TPRC.

Please contact

Lon Stirsman if you have an idea for a sports related article.
